WILLIAM H. BARNES AND MARGARET ELLEN CLEGG

William Henry Barnes was born on June 22, 1853, in Bolton, Lancashire, England, a son of Thomas and Nancy Boardman Barnes. His paternal grandparents were Peter and Betty Harrison Barnes, and his maternal grandparents were William and Mary Pendlebury Boardman.

William Barnes came to Utah on September 29, 1866. He married Margaret Ellen Clegg on December 28, 1872, and this marriage was solemnized in the old Salt Lake Endowment House on August 3, 1874.

Margaret Ellen Clegg was born November 21, 1855, in Bolton, Lancashire, England, a daughter of Jonathan and Ellen Walmsly Clegg. Jonathan Clegg and family came to Utah in the famous handcart company of 1856 under the leadership of Captain Edward Martin.

Mr. and Mrs. Barnes had fourteen children, eight girls and six boys, as follows: William H., Robert, Nancy Ellen, Sarah Alice, Margaret, Elizabeth, Sylvia, Rose, La-Nora, John, Lillian, Richard, Earl, and Charles Brigham Barnes. They also raised two grandchildren, Ester Ludlow Sweat and Mary Ludlow Duke, making 16 children
